

ecojudaism

OUR FAITH IN THE PLANET

Wild Fell: Fighting for Nature on a Lake District hill farm by Lee Schofield

EcoJudaism Overview

A site manager at Hawswater for the RSPB, Scofield describes in moving detail the challenges of rewilding: how to create good relationships, discover common interests and work successfully with local farmers to restore meadows, streams and wildlife. A beautiful and highly important book, it chronicles the careful process of turning plans and ideals into reality. – Rabbi Jonathan Wittenberg

For a more extensive review, click here.